II. RESPONSE TO AMENDMENTS

A. Claim Rejections – 35 USC § 112

Claims 1, 9-11 was rejected under 35 USC § 112, second paragraph as being indefinite. Applicant's arguments and Amendments with respect to this rejection have been fully considered and are persuasive in light of the amendments to the claims. Thus, rejections have been obviated.

B. Claim Objections

Applicant's arguments and amendments submitted on January 16, 2007 have been fully considered and are persuasive in light of the Amendments to the Claims. Thus, the objections have been obviated.

III. EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR

Art Unit: 1626

1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Jennifer L. Fox, Esquire on or about January 25, 2007.

The application has been amended as follows:

1. Cancel claims 25 and 26.
2. In the Specification, INSERT --- This application is a 371 of PCT/EP03/06417 filed June 18, 2003 and claims benefit to foreign application United Kingdom 0214139.8 filed June 19, 2002.---

IV. REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The instant invention is drawn to the compounds and pharmaceutical compositions of Formula (1). The instant invention appears to be free of the art of record. The closest prior art reference of record is Thurkauf et al., US 6723743B1. The prior art of record does not anticipate nor render obvious the instant invention because the prior art of record teaches and suggests a formula distinct from the instant invention of Formula (1). Namely, the prior art teaches and suggests imidazolyl moiety and not pyrazolyl moiety.

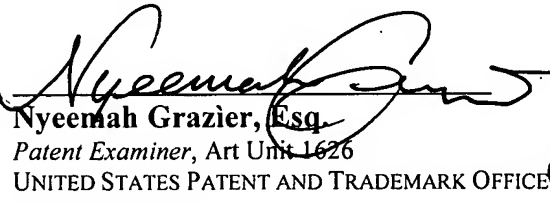

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
